Address: _____ City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone Number: _____

Emergency Telephone Number: _____

The placing of your signature in the appropriate space provided on this Waiver, Release and/or a Personal Assumption of Risk; singularly or collectively, hereinafter referred to as "Waiver", is an intentional act to unconditionally forever release, indemnify, discharge, defend, and hold harmless, Still Alive LARP, it's contractual parties, members, officers, assistants, players, participants, interests and obligations, heirs, assigns and insurers from, including but not limited to, any claims, rights, privileges, actions, demands or conditions resulting from my, voluntary participation in, on, around, and about, the playing areas, parking, rest areas, or any location that is used by Still Alive LARP.

Sports are extremely active, physically demanding, and can be openly aggressive. The possibility exists that I can be injured, or permanently disabled by my physical presence in the Still Alive LARP playing environment due to; including but not limited to, equipment failure, the forces of nature, circumstances a reasonable person would consider unusual and unforeseen, negligence and/or conduct, hostile or passive, of the Still Alive LARP members, agents, servants, minions, spectators and fellow participators, whether actively engaged in a sport as a player or a bystander.

☐ As such, I unequivocally agree and accept that; including but not limited to, any equipment failure, negligence, and/or conduct, contributory or benign, any act; foreseen or unforeseen, absence of an act, whether intentional or unintentional, or by the absent of, or the lapse of, established selective rules of safety and/or sportsmanship that places my safety, present or future health, physical and/or economic well being in jeopardy, will be embraced with in the intent and specifics of this Waiver.

☐ I agree to accept the financial responsibility for the loss or damage to the equipment rented, loaned, or used by me or those I allow to use, including but not limited to, replica weapons, costuming supplies, safety devices, game props, and protective apparatus.

☐ I understand that I am not to participate in a Still Alive LARP event or activity until I have willingly and legibly signed this agreement/waiver.
